

MORRIS COLLEGE EXTENSION FLORENCE COUNTY

Instructor: L.L. Cain, M.Div., D.D.

Course Syllabus and Lesson Outline

Course Title: Introduction to Theology II

Course Description: This course is designed to offer perspective students an introduction to the various disciplines associated with the study and the engagement of biblical theology. It serves to give a broader and diverse study of the Bible for comprehension, preaching and teaching.

Expectation of Students: Complete weekly reading and written reports assigned by instructor in a timely matter. Verbal input and expressions are encouraged. All make up work is to be completed before full credit is given to the class including financial responsibilities.

Assignments: Required reading assignments, written and oral reports and presentations. Group dynamics and participation in role playing and engagements.

Course Competency: Upon the completion of this class the students will have a broader understanding of theology and will apply their knowledge to inspiring preaching, affective teaching, in the church, community and social aspect of their ministry.

December 28, 2023

Dear Ministers & Lay Workers:

Registration for Morris College Spring Semester 2024 Extension Program classes will take place on Thursday, January 11, 2024, 6:00-7:30 p.m. at Bethlehem Baptist Church, 113 N. Tanyard Street, Timmonsville, SC.

The fee for the training is $225.00 (two hundred twenty-five dollars) per semester.

Bethlehem Baptist Church is also where the classes will be held 6:00 p.m.- 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, beginning January 16, 2024. The primary topics for the first semester will be (a) Introduction to Theology and (b) Practical Religion.

We urge you to make use of this opportunity to increase your skills and understanding in Christian leadership. For more information, feel free to call me at 843-618-4443, or you may call the Main Office of the Extension Program at 803-934-3293.

We are looking forward to working with you this year.

Leonard L. Cain, M. Div., D.D., Instructor
Morris College Extension Florence & Surrounding Counties